

CROATIA GEMS

Villa Anita, Island of Brac, Split Riviera

Sleeps 2 x 4+2 | 2 x 1 Double & Twin Bedrooms plus Sofa bed in the living room | 2 x 2 Bathrooms

Description

In a small seaside settlement, isolated from the crowd and bustle of big hotels, in the nature friendly environment and the undisturbed peace of the centuries-old pine forest, friendly hosts are awaiting you offering you accommodation in apartments in a new built house in typical Dalmatian architecture in fisherman's town Postira.

Each of two apartments in the villa have two bedrooms with double and twin beds, 2 luxurious bathrooms (equipped with washing machine), nicely furnished living rooms equipped with SAT/TV and pull out sofa bed, dining room with fully equipped modern kitchen (dishwasher machine, ceramic cooking hob, coffee machine, fridge/deep freezer), large balconies with sitting sets and magnificent sea view, private parking and grill.

The centre of charming fishing village Postira is only in few minutes walking distance from the villa (300 meters). Postira is a beautiful small fisherman's town with narrow streets and old stone houses around the harbour and with many nice beaches. In the village you can find supermarkets, bakery, butcher, several restaurants and cafes, bank and a post office, souvenir shops as well as small galleries and a famous fish factory "Sardina". Fresh fish can be bought directly from local fishermen.

One of the best way to explore Postira is by bike, starting on the promenade from Villa Anita, cruising coastline to the town centre You can choose to go all the way by the coast to sandy beach Lovrecina (3 kilometers by the sea) or You can turn to the countryside cycling through vineyards and fruit plantations to a small farmer-village Dol (3 kilometers inland - a long valley through vineyards). The route through quiet countryside to village Dol is mostly flat and is perfectly suited to bike traveling. You can rent a bikes in Hotel nearby the Villa Anita.
