In ancient times, Cavtat was a Greek settlement known as Epidaurum, therefore today it is attractive because of its mixture of old and new architecture. The old town of Cavtat is situated at the south slopes of the peninsulas Rat and Sustjepan, in the immediate vicinity of Dubrovnik. It is today the tourist and cultural centre of Konavle, the southernmost region of Croatia. Very pleasant climate, lusciant vegetation and beautiful shores will invite you to leave all your stressfull thoughts behind and refuel your energy.

Nice beaches stretch all the way to Cape Prahļjevac. Cavtat is located on the main road (M2, E65). It is very well connected with major Croatian cities through Dubrovnik and Cilipi Airport, while local communications with the surroundings include ship and bus lines.

The Cavtat Summer (July - August) - with its concerts of harmony-singing groups, folk music groups and sports tournaments (water-polo) – represents the most central cultural event. The most popular event is the Day of Our Lady of the Snows (5th of August), along with the public holiday commemorating an important date in the recent Croatian history. During the carnival festivities (January and February), the so-called Small Carnival Fiesta is the major event.
