Medieval Town of Trogir

Description

Set in the small village just a bit back from the coast in the hills just 8km from the Unesco heritage site of Trogir, Villa Katarina is the perfect place to escape from the crowds. Set amongst olive groves, the village is lovely and quiet and sees few tourists and yet within a short drive you have the restaurants and shops of Trogir or the beach at Marina.

The house is newly renovated and has 2 double bedrooms and a twin bedroom (plus extra beds for 3 potentially), the walled courtyard has a pool and outside grill for those al fresco evenings. Just a few minutes walk away there is a lovely little village shop for all your daily essentials and don't miss a meal at the local restaurant – Konoba Donja Banda, they do a wonderful spit roast lamb.

There are some gorgeous places worth visiting while staying in this area. The medieval town of Trogir was founded by Greek colonists who came across from the Island of Vis. Today, there are numerous cafes and bars along the water front where you can sit and watch the boats in the marina and wonderful restaurants tucked away in its winding streets.

Okrug Gornji on Ciovo is a great place to spend the day on the beach. And just an hour to the North the beautiful Krka Waterfalls make a stunning day out for all ages.
