Korcula Town – a short distance round the bay from the villa

Beautiful architecture in Old Town of Korcula

Description

Villa Korcula is in a terrific spot, just around the bay from the stunning Old Town of Korcula, tucked away in a little sheltered inlet. Just 5 metres from the sea edge and surrounded by mature garden, this is a very relaxing and beautiful place to be. From the veranda, you can watch the little boats in the water, or relax on the beach in front of the house. There is a shallow incline into the sea so children will be able to enter the sea or paddle easily in the calm water.

The villa is semi-detached and the closest neighbour on the other side is an apartment. It is one of several houses in the bay and has 3 bedrooms and sleeps 6 or 7 people in total. Its balconies and sunny garden space makes it a perfect summer holiday house and the garden for sitting by the sea with a glass of wine of an evening !

If you are feeling nautical, the villa has it's own little mooring and from Korcula town you can also easily get to the little islands just off the town's coast which are idyllic and have calm clear water surrounding them perfect for snorkeling and swimming.

The added bonus of this villa is that it is only about a mile from the Old Town of Korcula which is a beautiful medieval town. It is full of atmosphere and has many little shops and café/bars/restaurants, including a cocktail bar on one of the town's turrets!

If you have a car then you can explore the islands beautiful and lush villages, or why not take a trip to the Island of Mljet (a national park) which lies between Korcula Island and Dubrovnik. It makes for a wonderful day trip and is a sight to see indeed. The Peljesac Peninsula is also just a short hop on the little ferry and also has sweet little villages to explore – great if you want to try your hand at a spot of wind or kite surfing!
