Pension on the Peninsula (Apts/B&B), Peljesac Peninsula

Sleeps 2 to 4 | Apartments and 10 double en-suite rooms & studios

Description

This pension is situated right on the waters edge in a peaceful fishing village - off the beaten track yet 20 minutes from Orebic where you will find all the activities and water-sports you could wish for, this pretty village gives you the best of both worlds. Idyllic sunbathing platforms and crystal clear water are but a few yards from the pension - the sea is always perfectly calm here and this makes swimming a joy. This sheltered bay is also a popular stop over for boats so there's always something to watch whilst sipping a glass of local wine!

The apartments are on the 2nd floor and have 1 main bedroom and a sofa-bed in the living room. They both have their own balconies and lovely views across the bay to the island of Hvar. Rooms are doubles, also with balconies, and the Pension has its own wind-surfs and motor boats if you want to some nautical activity – take off right outside the building!

The pension has its own very small and fabulously located restaurant (a few tables by the side of the water) which serves the most amazing mussels you've ever tasted, fresh fish caught that day and carafes of their own delicious wine! The village also has possibly the best fish restaurant on the Peninsula just 300 yards away if you feel like yet another treat... This B&B constantly receives rave reviews from guests who stay here...
