Villa Sara, Selca, Island of Brac

Sleeps 6+2 | 3 Double Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | lovely views

Description

Villa Sara is a detached house situated on the slopes of the picturesque village of Selca on Brac, with views of the village on one side and views of the sea on the other. It is a traditional Dalmatian stone house, which was completely renovated in 2004. This charming house can accommodate 6 to 8 people comfortably. In front of the house there is a spacious terrace (70m²) with a big outside BBQ, and a big garden (500m²). On the ground floor there is a kitchen / dining room / sitting room area, 3 bedrooms 1 bathroom (with bath tub), and 1 en suite bathroom (with shower unit). 5 parking spaces are also available.

This island of stone, sea and sunshine is the largest in central Dalmatia. Brac Island has craggy shores and brown rocks, but also boasts wonderful beaches, such as Zlatni Rat (Golden Tongue), a spectacular jewel of nature. The limestone karst and scrub alternate with fertile fields in the interior and pine woods on the heights. Villages scattered along the coast and in the interior of Brac Island are like stone monuments, guarding the rich heritage of the past centuries. Brac Island has had many rulers during its history, but its spirit remains unchanged and is best expressed in its most enduring product – the famous Brac stone. Some of that spirit has been incorporated in historical buildings, such as Diocletian's Palace in Split, and more modern edifices, such as The White House in Washington.
